A. Jeans That Fit

We've put thought into our jeans design to make sure they fit and flatter as many women as possible. Most jeans are made too tight at the hips and thighs, gap at the back, and are cut too low to look sophisticated. Without losing our stylish, youthful look, our jeans are designed to actually fit the most common body shapes at each jeans size.

We are passionate about connecting with the people around the world who create our jeans, and we are thoughtful about our impact on the planet. Our mission is make beautiful apparel made with transparency and respect for people and planet.
